

Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge

Volunteer Open House

Photo Credit: S. Manlow

Photo Credit: C. Bidleman

Photo Credit: G. Thompson

March 10th, 2012
12:00 Refuge Tour
1:30 Presentation

Volunteer in Ridgefield to discover
Washington's best kept secret.

- ★ Experience wildlife up close.
- ★ Connect with like minded community members.
- ★ Experience a small town with lots of personality.
- ★ Gain valuable skills and experience.
- ★ Something for everyone no matter your interests!

Join us behind the scenes on Bachelor Island for a tour and talk by refuge staff, pizza and raffle items provided by the Friends of the Refuge, and information about what it means to volunteer in a town that offers that small town feel just 15 minutes north of Vancouver!

For more information and to RSVP contact:

Refuge Volunteer Coordinator at 360-887-4106 or email Josie_Finley@fws.gov

Ridgefield National Wildlife Refuge

Volunteer Open House

Photo Credit: S. Manlow

Photo Credit: C. Bidleman

Photo Credit: G. Thompson

March 10th, 2012
12:00 Refuge Tour
1:30 Presentation

Volunteer in Ridgefield to discover
Washington's best kept secret.

- ★ Experience wildlife up close.
- ★ Connect with like minded community members.
- ★ Experience a small town with lots of personality.
- ★ Gain valuable skills and experience.
- ★ Something for everyone no matter your interests!

Join us behind the scenes on Bachelor Island for a tour and talk by refuge staff, pizza and raffle items provided by the Friends of the Refuge, and information about what it means to volunteer in a town that offers that small town feel just 15 minutes north of Vancouver!

For more information and to RSVP contact:

Refuge Volunteer Coordinator at 360-887-4106 or email Josie_Finley@fws.gov